Rehearsal Etiquette

- Use your good judgment in regard to absences. We want you to be absolutely prepared for the concert musically, and we want you to be a “team player” in working with your fellow singers. We are a FUN group! Get to know the other singers, make new friends. And, work as hard as you can to learn your part. Please note that the rehearsal schedule is two (2) rehearsals less than normal.
- If you are unable to attend a rehearsal, please call and let us know. Scott Arkenberg (c) 773.206.6785; (w) 847.864.1185 x34. Scott’s email address is: sjarkenberg@ameritech.net.
- If you arrive late due to job delay or traffic, that happens and is understandable. Just quietly come in, take an open chair and begin the rehearsal. We’re glad that you made it and are here with us. The same goes if you must leave early—exit very quietly.
- Name Tags and Pencils will be on the piano. Please use them weekly!
- Mark Your Part! Mark Your Part! Mark Your Part! Mark Your Part!
- If you are unable to attend your normal rehearsal (Alphonsus or Saint Nicholas) that week, please come to the alternate location. I will be rehearsing the exact same repertoire in both locations that week.
